Fall Kickoff

"Our Town" by Thornton Wilder

Mr. Albrecht gives a last minute talk to the cast before dress rehearsal.

Linda Hess gives motherly advice to her "son" Dick Hansen and her "daughter" Kathy Smith.

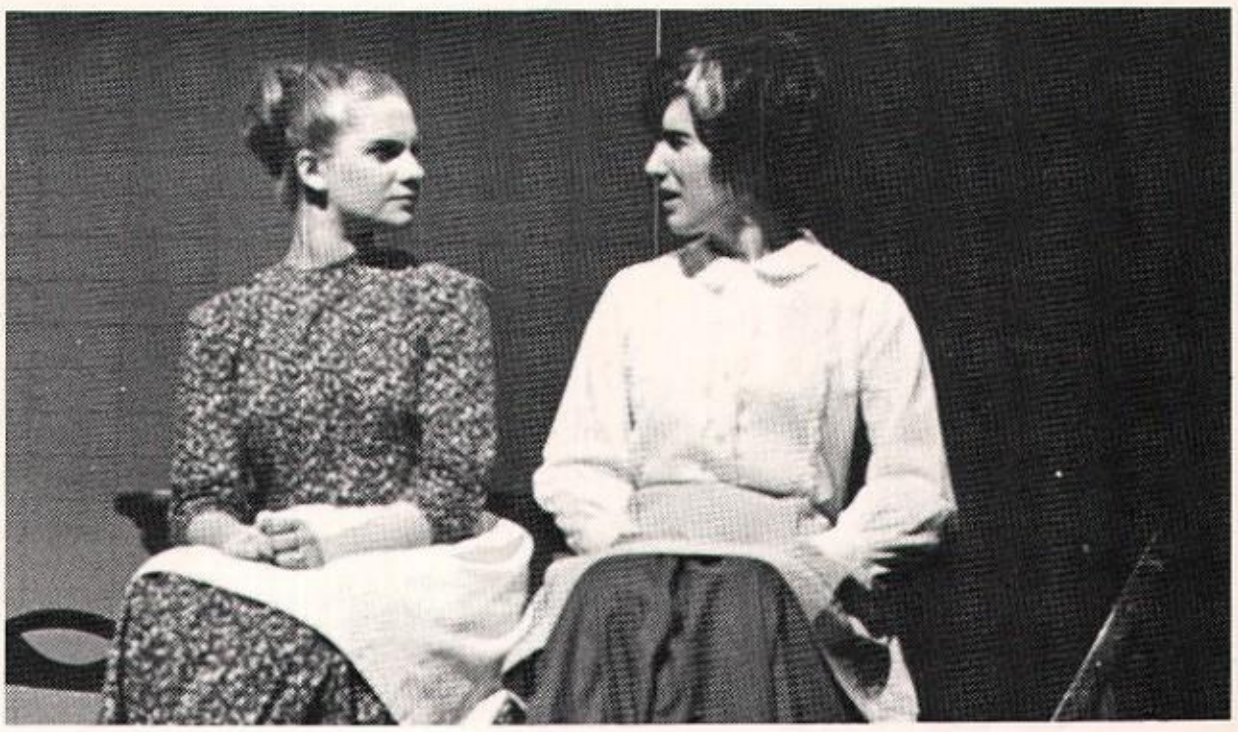
The cast and crew take a break between acts.

Gary Bard, as the Stage Manager, tells the audience what he thinks life is all about.

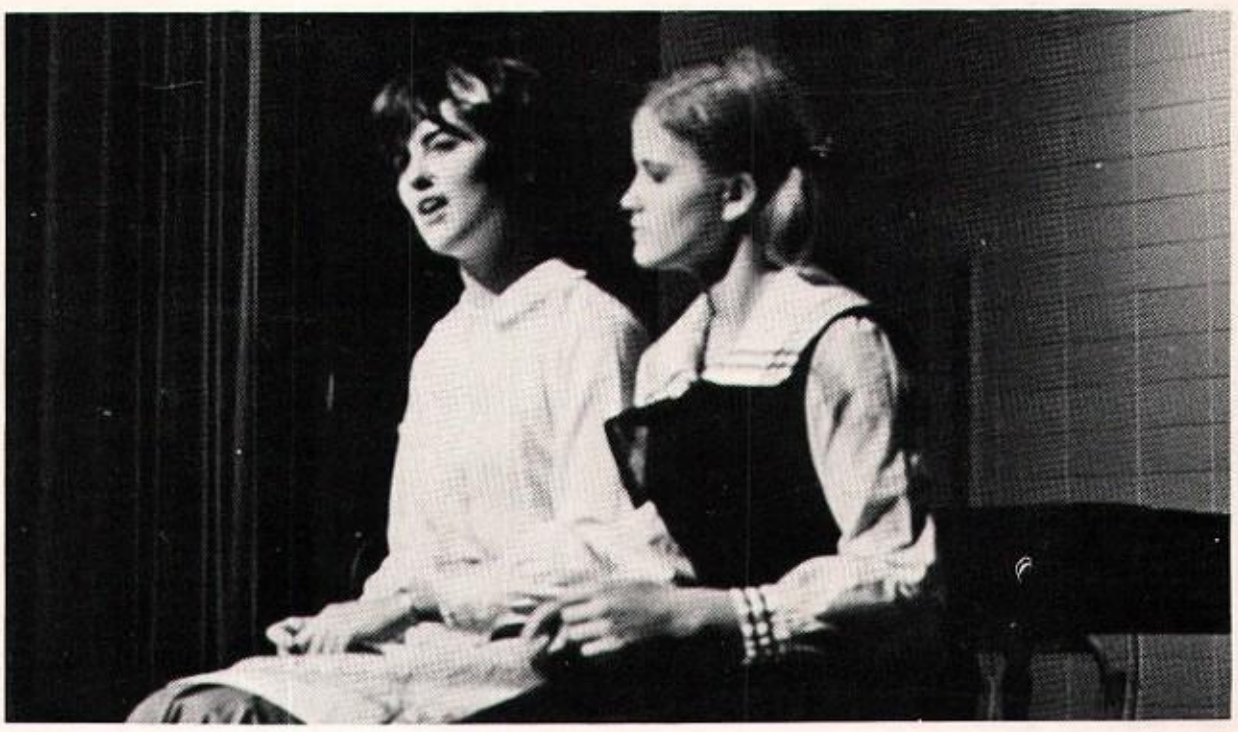
"Our Town", written by Thornton Wilder and directed by Joseph Albrecht, was a rewarding experience for all of the students involved.

The many weeks of memorizing lines late into the night, the impromptu parties on the stage between rehearsals, the final days of perfecting parts, costumes and lighting, the elation of a successful performance, the tragedy of Bob Wermerskirchen's death, all of these factors contributed toward making the cast and crew of "Our Town" more mature, more understanding individuals.

The Gibbs and the Webb family bustle through breakfast.



Sandy Moore and Linda Hess talk about places where "people don't talk in English and don't even want to."



Sandy Moore tells her "daughter", Connie Christian, about how pretty she was when she was Connie's age.

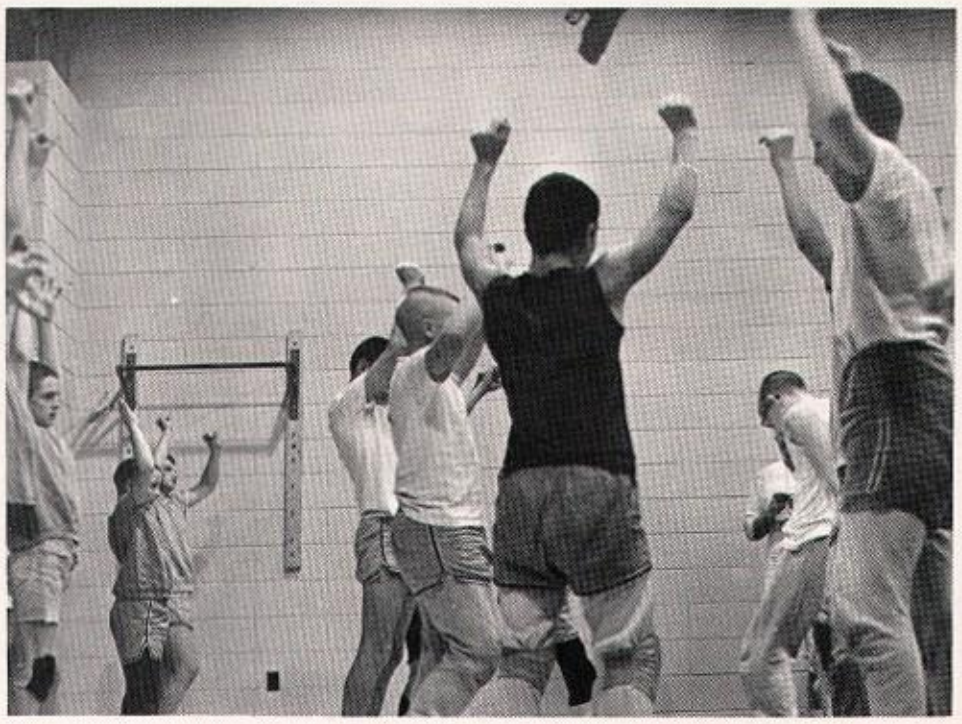
Coach Aperans

The Junior High Wrestlers found that hard practice was the only sure approach to being a good wrestler.



Wrestlers Have 8-3 Season

Mr. Burnell and Mr. Cormaney Coached the '67 '68 Tiger team.

The 1967-68 Grapplers lived up to their reputation as they posted a 8-3 win-loss record during a tough dual meet season. In addition, they tied for the North Iowa Cedar League Conference Championship, placed 4th at the Vinton Invitational, 3rd at The Orange Invitational and 2nd in the State Sectionals.

Jeff Rosen, Larry Boyd, Gene White, Steve Klingaman, and Dave Tyler won berths to the State District at Cedar Rapids and Larry Boyd qualified to go to State.

Success only comes after much hard work. This was the reason for the rewards earned by the 1967-68 wrestling team. They faced many obstacles, disappointments, and tough competition to make their place in the annals of Orange Wrestling. It was a pleasure for all to watch them compete, win or lose. We tip our hats in salute to the Wrestlers for a job well done.

The Art Club made plans at the beginning of the year to attend many of these, but the Latalier Galleries and UNI Art Fair in Cedar Falls were the only ones visited as a group. More plans are started for next year. The other activities the members enjoyed were working on the stage for "Bye, Bye Birdie," and a skating party with refreshments afterwards at Mr. Thompson's house. Mention "food" and most of the members will come.

Circulation Reaches a High

The original collection of materials in the library was received in September, 1958—probably about 3500 books and subscriptions for 50 magazines. At the end of the year the library had circulated 4500 books to a student body of 299—an average of 15 books per student.

The enrollment gradually expanded and also the circulation. The 1963-1964 school year showed an enrollment of 562 students with a circulation count of 14,332, an average of 25 books for each pupil.

There were nearly 750 students enrolled in 1966-1967, and the circulation count rose to 18,565. The library had acquired approximately 5000 volumes. The average circulation per student remains about the same. To date this year's count exceeds that of last year by nearly 1000. The book count is around 5500.

The magazine circulation is not counted. But a steady stream of magazines flow in and out each day. The library now subscribes to nearly 100 magazines.

This year there is a collection of 50 LP classical records and a new record player with a set of 8 earphones. These records are also circulated and are becoming quite popular.

Members Investigate Medical Profession

The Medical Careers Club was quite active. The clubs ambitious members took field trips to such places as the ABC Oxygen Rental Company and the new St. Francis Hospital.

Interesting aspects seen at St. Francis Hospital were the Therapy Department, swimming pool, mortuary and the hospital rooms.

Films were observed on mental retardation, tuberculosis, nursing, and muscular dystrophy.

Ready Or Not, Here I Come!

It's a ding-dong school
Practicing the golden rule
As we pass from class to class?
Like statuary scholars of plasticity,
We play a subway scene
Up and down an escalator of each other.
"Only three minutes to make the grade.
Fasten your seat belt, man,
I'm coming through."

Everyone is out for himself
In the clinging orange-vine
Hall where kids climb the stairs
To their next class.
Be sure to say your prayers
When you're pass through!
And the beat goes on . . .

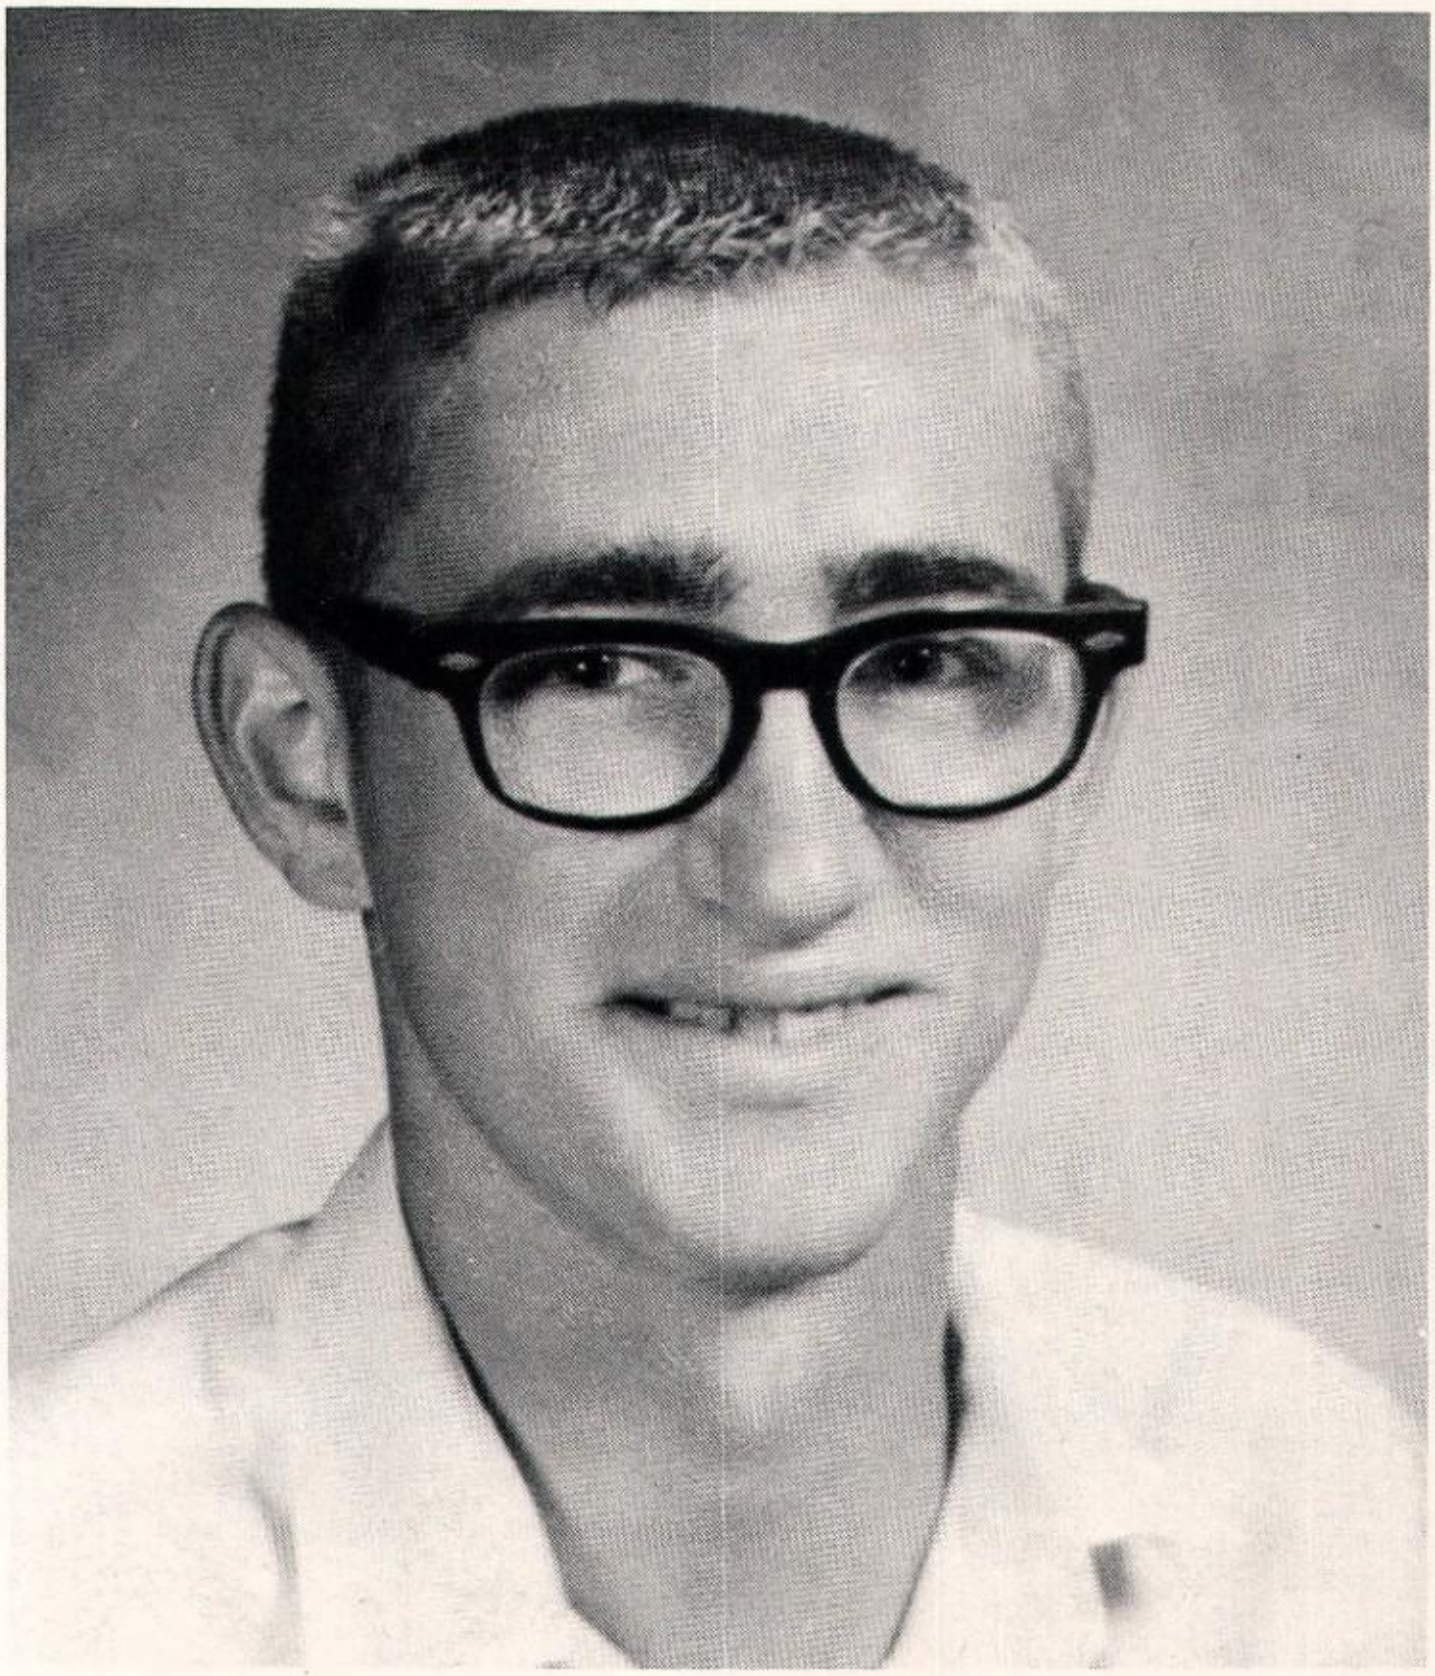
Finally the moment has come!!! The day came for the juniors to receive their class rings.

Bob Was Liked by All



Bob Wermerskirchen

Bob was an enthusiastic athlete, fellow student, and good friend to all. He could always be seen walking down the halls of OHS with a smile on his face and a cheery "hi" to everyone. Through the time he was here, he grew to be loved and respected by all of us. Bob will always be a part of our memories. While working on the production "Our Town," Bob was fatally injured on November 2.

Socrates

Fifty years ago, in 1918, Orange High boasted a graduating class of ten members. Today Orange High School claims 102 seniors who far outrank the first ones. The Class of '68 has to face many problems and to solve the majority of them requires more than high school education. That is why over half of our seniors are going on to college or some type of special training school.

We think our seniors have a lot to remember. Things such as Homecoming, football, basketball, wrestling, the spring sports, Prom and, most important of all, the Commencement and Baccalaureate exercises. They worked hard in various extracurricular activities and in Student Council to help make Orange better known and more active.

But it wasn't all work, senior "Playtime" included picnics, parties, goofing off in study halls and other things which we shall discretely leave out.

We wish Orange's graduating class the best of luck in everything they strive to achieve.

Among the many couples, Larry and Sherry enjoyed themselves.

The junior class tried something new for prom—a dinner-dance. It proved to be truly successful. The theme was "Reflections" and the atmosphere of the Elks Club added to everyone's enjoyment. The IBTC's played for the dance. For a little relaxation between dances Mike Ehlers and Linda Hess sang for us. Eric Jenkins, jr. class president read the prophecy and Mark Stephens, sr. class president read the wills.

"Reflections"

During intermission, the punch bowl was a favorite resting spot.

Everyone enjoyed the dinner and dance.

Linda Hess and Mike Ehlers sang.

IBTC's played.

Mr. Daniel Waite speaks to the 50th graduating class on "The Obligated Educated."

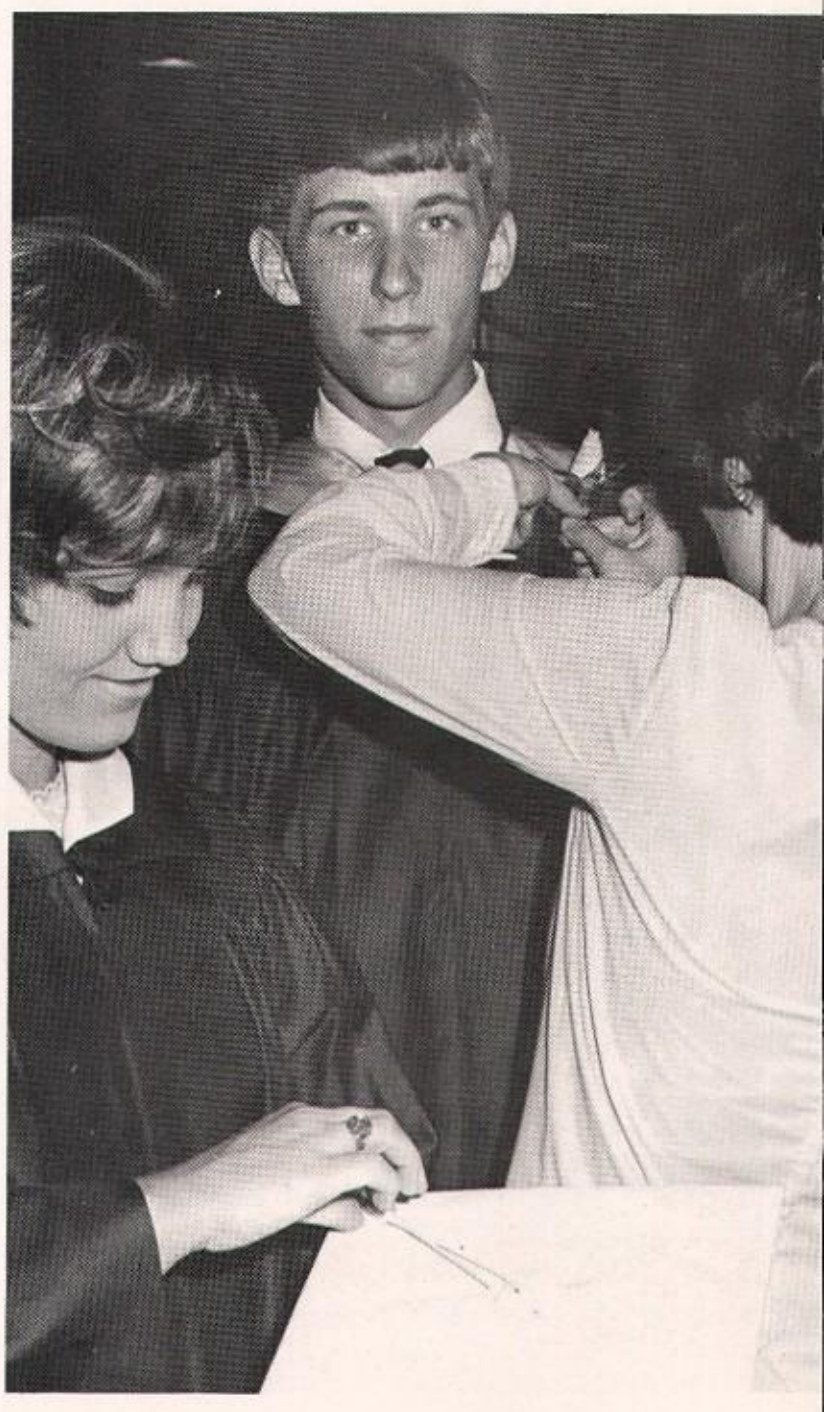
The class of 1968 was the fiftieth graduating class of Orange High.

Dr. Daniel Waite, chairman of the division of oral surgery at the University of Minnesota presented the address to the senior class.

Dick Hansen received the valedictorian award and Ron Lichty was named salutatorian. Both seniors received scholarships from the Iowa State University.

Mr. Charles Dalton, Jr. presented diplomas to the class.

Linda Hess, senior outstanding vocal musician sings to her fellow class members.

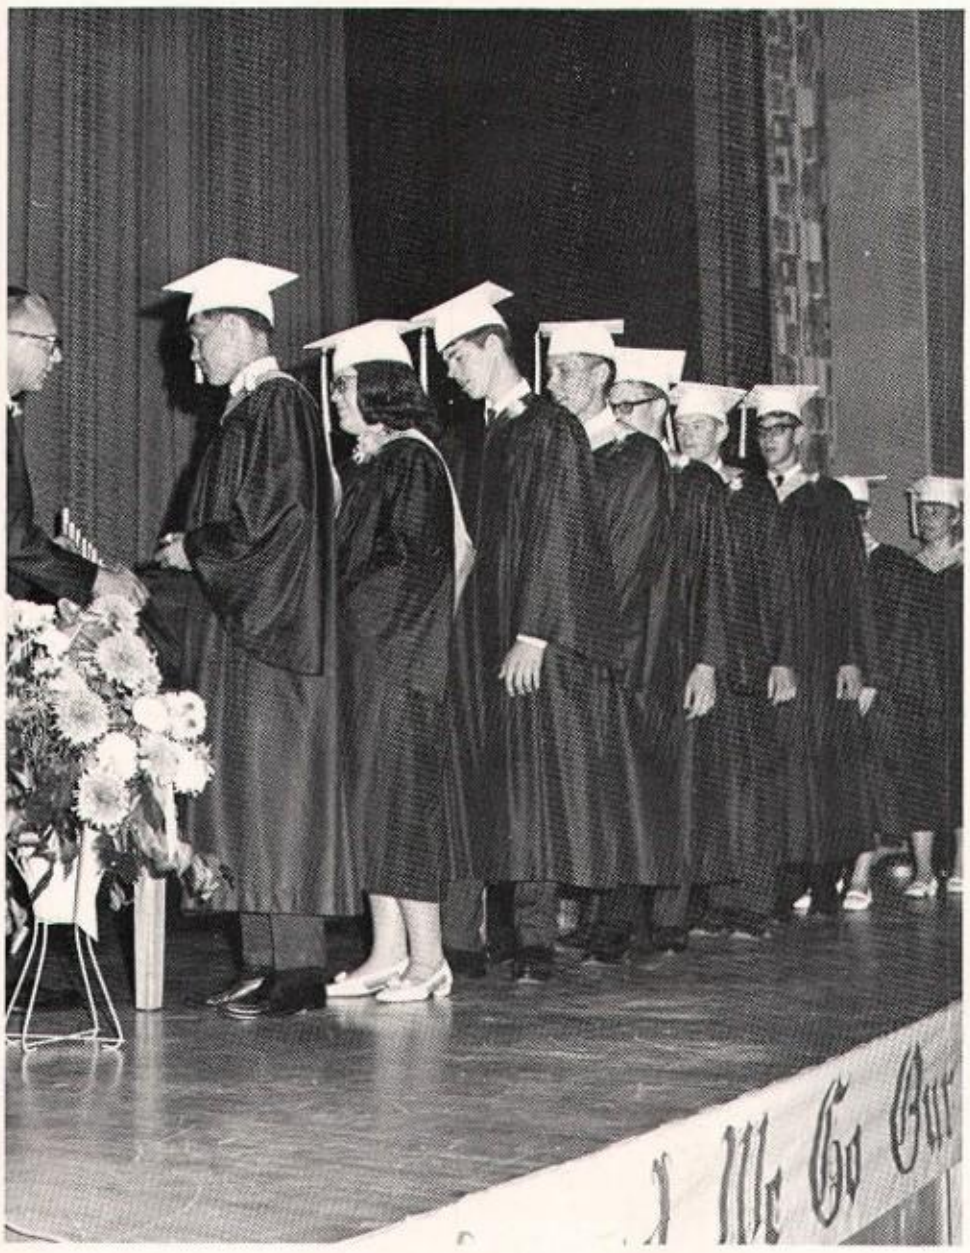


Janelle Andreessen and Dennis Iversen are making final preparations.

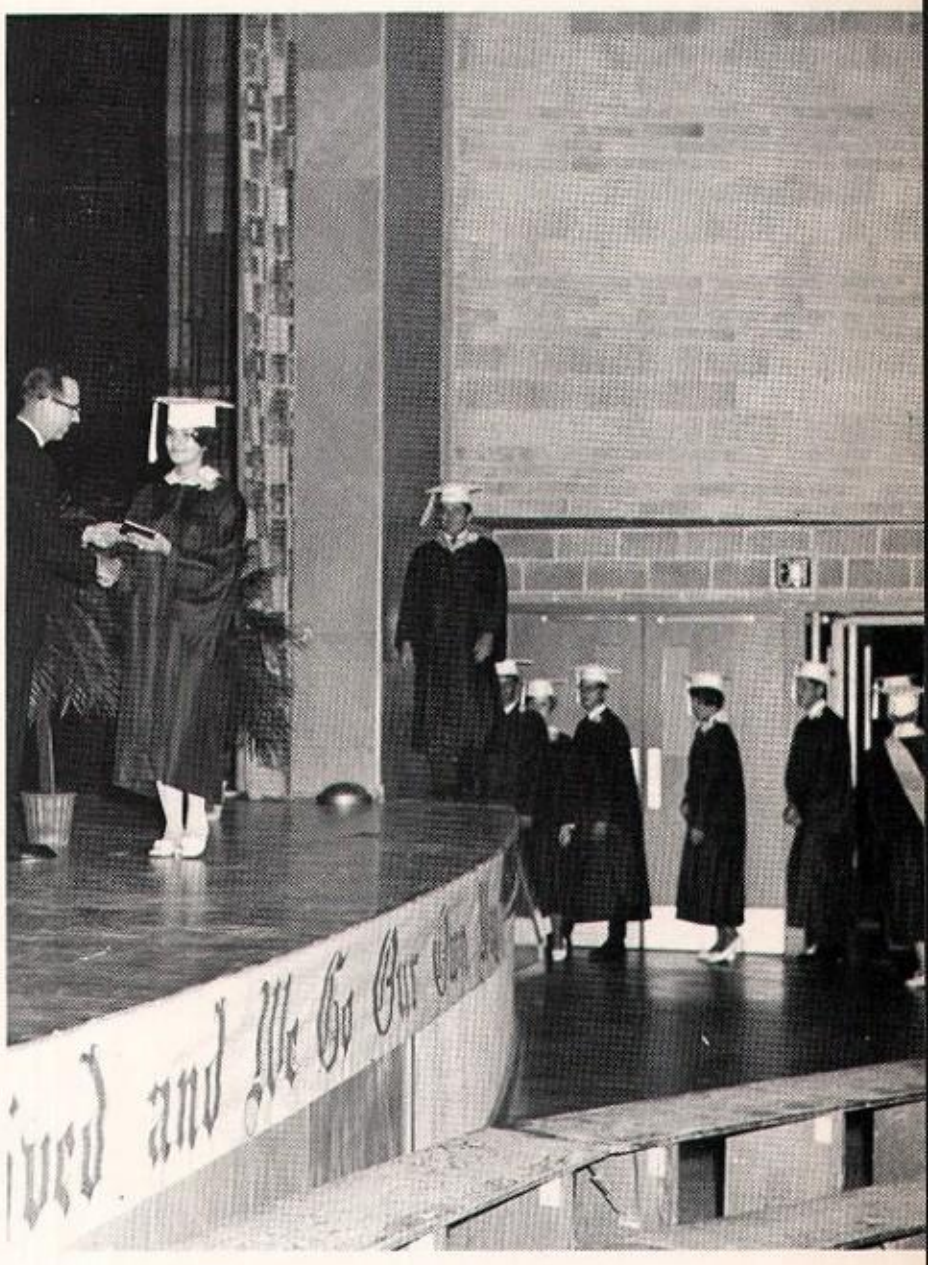
Ron Lichty receives the salutatorian award from Mr. Miles, Principal.

Dick Hansen receives the valedictorian award with an overall accumulative grade point of 4.0.

Janelle Reichert receives the Outstanding Citizenship Award presented by the Iowa State Bar Association.



This group of seniors receives an award for a "B" average through their high school career.



Mr. Charles Dalton, Jr. a member of the Board of Education presents the diplomas to the 102 graduating seniors.

The 1968 Annual Staff brings your book to a close.

In closing the 1968 Tiger Tales, I would like to say one last word to the student body, faculty, and to all who made this yearbook possible. The annual staff was small and inexperienced, but because of their long hours, hard work, and determination this group of students has made the 1968 Tiger Tales a great success. I hope you enjoy looking at it as much as we enjoyed putting it together for you.

I cannot express my gratitude enough for those who so diligently devoted their time and effort to put this book together. To Mike Ehlers and Mr. Whelchel for taking pictures, Mr. Miles for cooperating with us and helping set up picture taking schedules, all faculty and students who have either helped write copy or sell ads, Mrs. Cook, the adviser, who exercised patience with all of us.

I would also like to express deep appreciation to all of our patrons and advertisers who without their help this yearbook would never have been possible.

I hope we have captured the memories of the 1967-68 school year for all.

Jen Hansen

The yearbook staff takes this opportunity to thank the advertisers for their contribution to the 1968 Tiger Tales; without you, our book would be impossible to produce.

Dear Karin,

Happy 9th birthday! I hope you have a great day filled with lots of fun and laughter. I'm sorry I can't be there to celebrate with you, but I'm sending you a special gift to make up for it. I hope you enjoy it!

I can't believe you're already nine years old. It seems like just yesterday you were a baby, and now you're a smart, beautiful girl with so much potential. I'm so proud of you and all the amazing things you've accomplished so far.

I know that you've been looking forward to your birthday party with your friends, and I hope you have the most wonderful time. You deserve to be surrounded by people who love and appreciate you, and I'm sure you'll have a blast playing games, eating cake, and opening presents.

I also hope that you'll take some time to relax and enjoy your special day. You've been working hard in school and with your extracurricular activities, and you deserve a little break. Maybe you can curl up with a good book, watch your favorite movie, or spend some quality time with your family.

Remember, Karin, that you are loved and cherished by so many people, and we all want you to know how special you are. You have a bright future ahead of you, and I can't wait to see all the wonderful things you'll do in the years to come.

Best of luck,

Aunt Lucy
